

Booyah

Memories Of An Old Rink Rat

The Life and Times of Don Pecore

This extraordinary tale began with the birth of Don Pecore ("Booyah") in South Porcupine. Heavily involved in hockey and ringette as a player, coach and then administrator, Don has left a positive mark on many lives.

Don was a very gifted person who understood service to others, commitment, integrity, and believed that actions always spoke louder than words. This book was written primarily by Don, who was unable to finish it before he passed away in 1993. His daughter Tina finished the compilation of his notes, edited and added a very poignant end note chapter with her own comments and observations. The Index is handy for tracking the names of people who appear in team photos and everywhere through the book. In the section on his service during World War II, there are maps that make it clear as to where they were. Wonderfully written, with 7 maps and 127 photos, this is a book to treasure for the history and the memories.
